WHAT'S NEW IN JANUARY

High School Series: Pre-Decide

A start to a new year always seems to come with the pressure to recreate yourself. But what if instead of reinventing ourselves, we were just intentional with starting our year. Through this series we will do just that as we look at topics like focus, consistency, growing with God, and what to do when we want to quit.

Middle School Series: Tear Down the Idols

For the next 7 weeks, Middle School students will be shown a new perspective on some of the biggest things we are tempted to tether our allegiance to, what it looks like to unseat those idols, and how to bring change to the world by living out our God-given purpose. It's time to tear down the idols and live fully devoted to Him
